

Program of International Seminar on Waste Water Treatment Appropriate Technology for Better Sanitation and Environment in Bangladesh

Purpose
(1) For sharing perception and understanding regarding sanitation and water pollution problems due to untreated waste water derived from households and industries in urban populated areas in Bangladesh.
(2) For considering and exploring possible cooperation among various sectors/organizations in Bangladesh and Japan for tackling the sanitation and water pollution problems

Venue
California Banquet Hall, HOTEL WASHINGTON 56, Gulshan Avenue Gulshan-1, Dhaka (see attached map) Phone: 88-02-9860602 9887061 9887090 Fax: 88-02-9894915

Schedule
Thursday, March 13 th 2014
Time	Event/Topics	Contributor
9:30 -10:00	Registration
10:00-10:05	Opening Remarks	Ms.AZUMA Hirono, Coordinator of the Seminar
10:05-10:30	Domestic Wastewater Management and Urban Sanitation Challenges in D-WASA	Mr. Engr. Israfil Hossain AKANDA, Sub-Divisional Engineer, MODS Zone-5, Dhaka-Wasa
10:30-10:55	The Environmental Challenges and consequences in Bangladesh	Mr. Munir Chowdhury, Former Director (Monitoring and Enforcement) of Department of Environment
10:55-11:10	Tea Break
11:10-11:55	Waste Water Treatment Appropriate Technology for Better Sanitation and Environment in Bangladesh	Dr.Nao Tanaka, Executive Director of APEX
11:55-12:55	Free Discussion
12:55-13:00	Closing Remarks	Dr.Nao Tanaka
13:00-14:00	Lunch

Language: English (Translation to Bengali or Japanese is available)